ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

5. Defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. Defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if defendant has reverted to the use of drugs. Defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharged by the Program Director and Probation Officer.

7. As directed by the Probation Officer, defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. Defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.
8. During the period of community supervision, defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
9. Defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgments and any other financial gains to the court-ordered financial obligation.
10. Defendant shall comply with the immigration rules and regulations of the United States, and if deported from this country, either voluntarily or involuntary, not reenter the United States illegally. Defendant is not required to report to the Probation & Pretrial Services Office while residing outside of the United States; however, within 72 hours of release from any custody or any reentry to the United States during the period of court-ordered supervision, defendant shall report for instructions to the United States Probation Office located at: 300 N. Los Angeles Street, Suite 1300, Los Angeles, CA 90012-3323.
11. Defendant shall not obtain or possess any driver's license, Social Security number, birth certificate, passport or any other form of identification in any name, other than defendant's true legal name, nor shall defendant use, any name other than defendant's true legal name without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer.
12. Defendant shall submit defendant's person and any property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to search and seizure at any time of the day or night by any law enforcement or probation officer, with or without a warrant, and with or without cause. If stopped or questioned by a law enforcement officer for any reason, defendant shall notify that officer that defendant is on federal supervised release and subject to search with or without cause.

Defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Financial Responsibility Program.

Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $42,630 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A.

The amount of restitution ordered shall be paid as follows:

Victim Name	Amount of Loss

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. For any amount of restitution that remains unpaid after release from custody, defendant shall make monthly payments of at least 10% of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $200 per month, during the period of supervised release, to begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. The court will not require defendant to make an immediate cash payment toward his restitution. Defendant shall be held jointly and severally liable with codefendants, Dan-Eugen Boar and Andrei-Raul Cirilescu for the amount of restitution ordered in this judgment. The victims' recovery is limited to the amount of their loss and defendant's liability for restitution ceases if and when the victim receives full restitution. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest.

Upon motion by the government, all remaining counts as to this defendant in the Indictment are hereby dismissed.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
